

I am opposed to any change to the Indiana no call list that would allow telemarketers to call my home phone for any reason. I can guarantee any call to my phone would not result with over the phone sale. Also it would probably be answered with a slam and very discourteous hang up of the telephone. Regards,
Bobby Jetmore